

Synergy - a Successful Partnership of Employment Law & Legal Training

To negotiate your way through the maze of employment law you need:

- sound legal advice
- appropriate legal training so that you and your managers can anticipate problems
- support and guidance when things go wrong.

We are qualified employment law solicitors with many years' experience in every aspect of the field, providing legal advice and training in non-contentious situations, as well as full legal advice and support in dealing with contentious matters. Our services are used by quoted and non-quoted companies in a wide variety of industry sectors including finance, retail, leisure, industry, IT, entertainment, media and publishing.

"Synergy is the interaction of two or more parts to produce a combined result which is greater than the sum of the individual parts."

Our Synergy works on three levels:

Synergy of Legal Advice & Practical Help

getting to know your organisation and working with you to find practical, commercial solutions

Synergy of Employer & Employee Relationship

approaching education and awareness by working and learning together developing trust and co-operation to help you retain your staff and avoid disputes

Synergy of Interactive Legal Training & Legal Advice

providing you with the legal awareness you need to anticipate problems and minimise risk enabling you to manage diversity and make it benefit your organisation

We hope that the content of this website is of interest and we would be happy to address any questions that you may have relating to this website or any employment law issues.

Regulated by the Solicitors Regulation Authority